

RECENT REFLECTIONS.

There was a man in our town,
He thought him wondrous wise;
He swore by all the fabled gods
He'd never advertise!
But his goods were advertised ere long,
And thereby hangs a tale;
The "ad" was set in nonpareil,
And headed "Sheriff's Sale!"

Note—Move up, or the sheriff will fall on you.

Mr. McWhirter has purchased the Como residence on North Buckeye.

Mr. F. M. Whitlaw has purchased the McDivitt property, corner Third and Mulberry, one of the handsomest homes in the city.

Mr. Como's family will leave Abilene about the 20th of this month for Worcester, Mass. We are sorry to lose them from our city.

The Ladies' Aid society of the M. E. church will give a social at the residence of W. S. Anderson on Enterprise street, next Tuesday night.

A horse driven by Mrs. Robt. Korns ran away this afternoon and scared Mrs. K. badly. It was stopped before any material damage was done.

The Reflector office has the finest line of job type in the city; no finer work can be turned out in Central Kansas than we give our customers every day.

Much credit for securing the Andrews Opera Company is due Mr. W. G. Cowles who labored assiduously for the success of the occasion and was mainly instrumental in inducing the company to appear here.

The State Journal in giving a list of the jurors of the United States court has instead of Harrison Flora, "Mr. Harrison, Abilene." Sidney Smith hit it right when he said that "fame chiefly consists in having your name wrong in the newspapers."

The farmers of Dickinson county are heartily in favor of an institute and will rally to one with pleasure. They realize that they will reap benefits from such a meeting that will assist them both financially and mentally and help to make their vocation a more certain and profitable one.

The educational interests of Salina are in a pickle. A school board has been elected that is a tie on retaining Prof. Owen and the chances are that he will have to go. Mr. Owen is not only a first-class educator but is a progressive, go-ahead gentleman and Salina will make a mistake in allowing him to leave.

Hon. Ralph Elliot, a brother-in-law of Mr. Henry Elliot on East Fifth, died last week at Williamsport, Pa., aged 91 years. Mr. Elliot was very wealthy and one of the leading citizens of the vicinity. His life was a good example of the possibilities of America. He came from Ireland in 1812, a poor boy and by industry, frugality and diligence amassed a handsome fortune.

Ed. Thisler, Detroit's jolly farmer-stockman, had a narrow escape from being struck by the cars while crossing the Union Pacific track east of the city. He did not see the train until the horse he was driving had got on the track. He swears that the engine was not more than six feet away but he wheeled the animal and saved himself. The horse ran away and there was a bad smash-up but Ed. survives to tell the story.

Married.

Lyman Martin and Miss Jessie C. Swigart were quietly married Thursday at the home of the bride in Newbern township. The happy couple are among the best known young people of the vicinity and will be overwhelmed with congratulations.

Obstreperous Brothers.

Two brothers, Tom and Ed Ely were "pulled" Saturday evening for obstreperous conduct and had their examination this morning. One of them was in a fight and was fined $12.75 in default of which he roasts in jail; the other was drunk and got $17.75, which he paid.

Attempt at Burglary.

Some would-be burglars broke into the cellar of Berry, Berry & Co.'s store on Cedar street Sunday night. They effected an entry from the alley, going through the window and attempted to get upstairs. In this they were unsuccessful and departed as empty handed as they came.

Level Headed.

A committee composed of young men from the various churches is taking what may be termed a religious census of the city. Among other questions asked is, "What religious papers do you take?" A family in West Abilene sent in as its reply, "The Abilene Daily Reflector." The members of that household are on the high road to eternal glory and happiness.

For Murder.

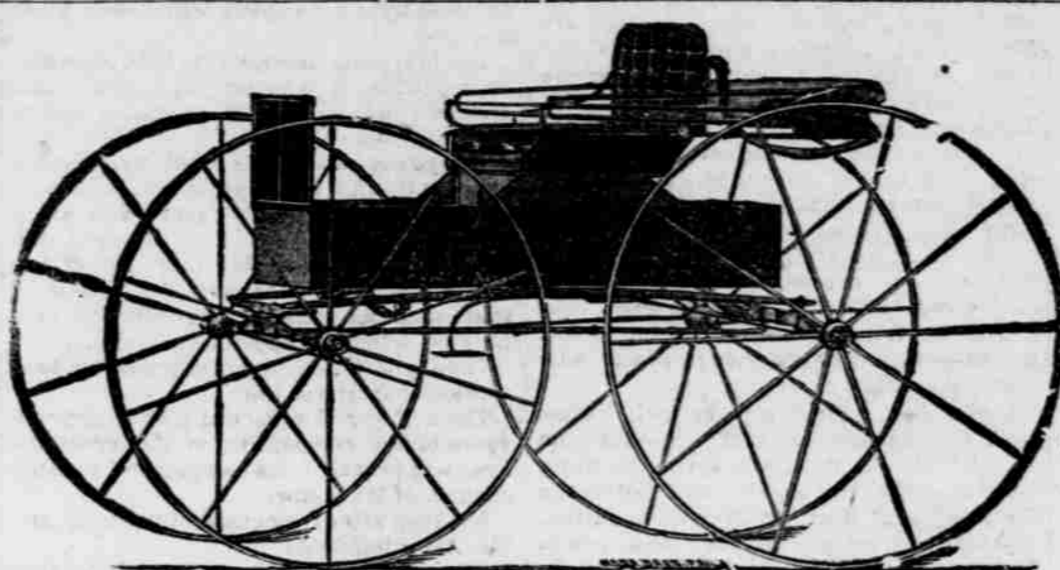

Sheriff Swartz, of Morris county, came up from Council Grove Sunday to place in the Dickinson county jail one Guy Wellington, alias G. A. Mitchell, who is accused of the murder of his stepfather, E. E. Crandall, several weeks ago. Wellington was once before in custody but escaped from his guard and has for a time been at liberty. It will be chilly weather, though, when he gets away from Sheriff Nail.

HOW ARE THESE FOR WAY-DOWN PRICES!

TOP BUCCY

FIFTY

DOLLARS.

ROAD CART

SIXTEEN

DOLLARS.

I have just closed a deal by which I get FIFTY INDIANA-MADE BUGGIES, SPRING WAGONS AND CARTS.

To start with, I got this work very low, then I made a good fair profit on my trade, and just to see how quick I can close the lot out, I will let them go at the above prices.

THE WORK IS ABOVE THE AVERAGE eastern work that the dealers have been selling you for DOUBLE THIS PRICE and telling you it was FIRST CLASS, it is not first class, but it will pay you to look at it, and if you want a STRICTLY FIRST-CLASS BUGGY, REMEMBER, I MAKE ALL STYLES AND SELL THEM AT WHOLESALE PRICES.

$10,000 DAMAGES.

The Santa Fe Asked for That Sum to Pay for a Man's Life.

Most of our readers will remember the accidental death of John Latty, a brakeman on the C. K. & W. R. R., on July 2nd 1887. He was coupling cars east of the Santa Fe depot when some ties, with which one of the cars was loaded, projecting over the end crushed his head between their ends and the approaching car, causing instant death.

It was at the time thought to be nothing but the merest accident and that nobody was to blame. The family of the deceased did not, however, take that view of the case and Mary A. Kline, of Illinois, administrator of Latty's estate, has begun suit against the Santa Fe for $10,000 alleging that his death was due to negligence on the part of the company's employees in allowing the ties to project over the end of the car as they did.

Burton and Moore and C. S. Crawford represent the plaintiff while A. A. Hurd and Stambaugh, Hurd & Dewey are for the company. The suit was brought some months ago but it was only this week that it was filed with the district clerk. The case may come up at the next term of court. As $5,000 is usually the limit of damages allowed by the courts for the taking of a life it is scarcely probable that more than that amount will be awarded in this case, but even that will help assuage the grief felt by the family of the young man.

"La Mascotte."

That Abilene enjoys a first-class entertainment and is willing to patronize such liberally was shown by the large audience that greeted the Andrews Opera Company Wednesday. The rendition of the opera "La Mascotte" was not a disappointment; no entertainment this season has given the audience more pleasure and nothing but commendation is heard today for the even and meritorious performance.

Miss Marie Roe, as Bettina, completely captured her hearers; her bright, sparkling manner and rich voice is bound to make her a favorite. Geo. Andrews acted Pippo to perfection and gave much pleasure by his rich baritone voice. Miss Florence Clayton as Flammetta gave her lines aptly and won abundant applause. Ed Andrews and Fred Clayton, Lorezo and Rocco, are a whole comedy in themselves and convulsed the audience continually by their acting. Severe hoarseness prevented the famous tenor, Alonzo Hatch, from appearing in the play and he sat in the audience. His place as Prince Frederic was taken by J. C. Gar who carried it very acceptably, his solo, "My Native Land," in the third act being particularly fine.

Not the least delightful portion of the evening was the symphony overture rendered before the beginning of the play.

Altogether the programme was a most agreeable one and the Abilene Club is to be commended for having secured so fine a theatrical attraction for Abilene. Should the Andrews Opera Company return next season they may be sure of a crowd-d house.

Closing Exercises.

Pleasant closing exercises were held at the Highland school, four miles southwest of the city, last evening. Supt. J. S. Ford, Messrs. Cook, of Solomon, and Lyons and Landis, of Abilene, were present and made short addresses. Mr. W. E. Binder, the teacher, has done careful, conscientious work for the patrons of the district during the past term and has met with excellent success. Mr. Binder is one of the county's best teachers and is advancing rapidly toward the top of the profession.

Office Removal.

Dr. T. B. Ross has been busy today moving his office fixtures from his home on North Buckeye to the rooms over Gleissner's drug store. The Doctor's practice is rapidly increasing and ranks already among the largest in the city, a fact which has necessitated the move down town. All calls left day or night at Gleissner's drug store will have prompt attention.

Filing Bonds.

Under the recent law passed by the legislature, requiring abstractors to file bonds for $5,000 before being allowed the use of the county's books, the following firms have fulfilled the requirements: W. G. Cowles, Hiland Southworth, Geo. Merrill, W. T. Davidson. These firms are thus far the only ones who have become entitled to the use of the records.

Residence Burned.

The dwelling of Mr. Swigart in Hayes township, was burned to the ground Friday. It is not exactly known how it caught fire as the family was not awakened until after the flames were well under way. One of the children came near being smothered by the smoke before it could be rescued; but fortunately its life was saved. The house and contents were totally destroyed, and as the insurance was small the loss is no inconsiderable one.

Pleased with Abilene.

Mr. Adam Mott and wife, uncle and aunt of Mrs. E. S. Thayer on North Fourth street are visiting in the city. Their home is in Saratoga, N. Y., but they have been traveling through the West for the past five or six months, going as far as California and Oregon. Mr. Mott is enthusiastic in his praise of Abilene and Kansas. Coming here as he did with the impression that the city was the old cow-boy town of twenty years ago he is wonderfully surprised to find the flourishing, beautiful city that exists here. He says that in all his extensive journey he has found no such city or one that appeared to have so bright a future as the Belle of the Smoky.

Death of Mrs. G. R. Lamb.

Friday afternoon Mrs. Green Lamb, living in Enterprise, passed quietly away from this life into the great hereafter. Mrs. Lamb has been ill for some time but only recently was considered to be in danger.

She, as well as her husband, has long been a prominent resident of this county and they have many friends who will be sorrowful indeed over the decease of the loved one. Five children, three girls and two boys, the youngest five years old, mourn the loss of the mother who has watched over and cared for them.

The funeral services were held at the home Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock. A number from this city were in attendance.

Claiborne-Cormack.

A quiet wedding ceremony took place yesterday by which one of Abilene's newspaper men joined the great throng of those who enjoy wedded life. Mr. R. B. Claiborne, editor of the Chronicle, and Mrs. J. H. Cormack were married by Rev. E. Clark. Mr. Claiborne has lived in Abilene for about a year and though we have been well acquainted with him we never suspected him of desiring to join the Benedicts. Now that he has taken the fatal step we wish him all the happiness that he can desire. Mrs. Cormack has been well known here and has many friends. Mr. and Mrs. Claiborne have gone to housekeeping and are ready to receive congratulations, which the REFLECTOR is among the first to offer.

The Verdict Unanimous.

W. D. Sult, Druggist, Bippus, Ind., testifies: "I can recommend Electric Bitters as the very best remedy. Every bottle sold has given relief in every case. One man took six bottles, and was cured of Rheumatism of 10 years' standing." Abraham Hare, druggist, Belleville, Ohio, affirms: "The best selling medicine I have ever handled in my 20 years' experience, is Electric Bitters." Thousands of others have added their testimony, so that the verdict is unanimous that Electric Bitters cure all diseases of the Liver, Kidneys or Blood. Only a half dollar a bottle at Shaler's drug store.

A Woman's Discovery.

"Another wonderful discovery has been made and that too by a lady in this county. Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly and could not sleep. She bought of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption and was so much relieved on taking first dose that she slept all night and with one bottle had been miraculously cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz." This write W. C. Hamrick & Co., of Shelby, N. C. - Get a free trial bottle at C. C. Shaler's drug store.
